

Student Learning Outcomes for School of Engineering Master of Science, Master of Engineering, and Master of Construction Management Programs

At the end of their Masters degree program, students will:

- 1) Students will demonstrate knowledge of engineering/science fundamentals appropriate for his/her discipline and specialization.
- 2) Students will demonstrate the ability to communicate effectively in oral and/or written form.
- 3) Students will demonstrate the ability to critically assess or apply information in her/his discipline and specialization.