WELCOME FROM THE DEAN

Welcome to our annual awards recognition ceremony, our dedicated time to recognize the outstanding efforts of our students, faculty, and staff.

It goes without saying that students are vital to all we do here in the School, but important also are the faculty and staff who make it all happen. During my time as dean, I've especially come to appreciate the "team effort" that is necessary to keeping our successful efforts going in the School of Engineering.

Congratulations to all the winners here today, enjoy the rest of the semester, and keep up the great work. Your success is the School's success!
