Grant Writing Seminar

March 30 - May 25, 2017
Weekly on Thursdays from 4PM - 5PM

CASAA Classroom, 2650 Yale Blvd. SE Suite 110

Link to CASAA Map

CASAA Research Professors, Dr. J. Scott Tonigan and Dr. Jon Houck, will facilitate this free 9-week seminar presenting a step-by-step approach to preparing a successful NIH grant application. Special emphasis will be placed on avoiding common pitfalls and capitalizing on newly implemented NIH grant application guidelines, with a focus on Research Project Grant (R-series) funding mechanisms, as well as modules for Fellowship (F-series) mechanisms.

Who should attend?

Faculty interested in learning valuable insights and tips on how to submit a winning NIH "R" or "F" grant application.

Registration

Attendance each week is strongly encouraged, but not required. Space is limited, so please register by March 20, 2017.
