

Student Learning Outcomes for School of Engineering PhD Programs

Upon completion of the program, students will:

- 1) Demonstrate knowledge of engineering and science fundamentals appropriate for the discipline and specialization.
- 2) Demonstrate depth of knowledge in their specialization.
- 3) Demonstrate the ability to conduct original and independent research.
- 4) Demonstrate the ability to perform critical review of literature in their area of specialization.
- 5) Be able to communicate effectively.